A former Permanent Secretary of the Ministry of Solid Minerals Dr. Garba Baba Buwai is dead.

Buwai, who also served as a Commissioner representing Zamfara, Sokoto and Kebbi States in the Federal Civil Service Commission, died in a road accident on Sunday while returning home after Isha prayers at the National Mosque in Abuja.

Buwai was said to be passionate about reforms in the federal service and showed commitment and forthrightness in whatever assignment he was given.

Until his death, Buwai, who hailed from Zamfara State, was the President of Abuja Centre for Islam propagation (ACIP) for more than 15 years.

Buwai is survived by a wife, children and grandchildren.
