

the centre would replace stolen, damaged or old vehicle number plates in the zone.

He said the centre was about 80 per cent completed, adding that the machine for the production of the plates was already in place.

Fadugba said the FRSC had completed the computerisation of number plates already issued in the zone.

Fadugba said security measures had been put in place to protect sensitive equipment and personnel at the centre.

He said the establishment of the centre and similar ones in other zones, was part of steps by the FRSC to

Trailer kills teenager

A teenager, Saleh Kunjikunji was last Friday, killed by a trailer in Damaturu, while on the campaign train of a Yobe state governorship aspirant.

Eye witnesses told our correspondent, that the dead teenager was among numerous others who rode on motor-cycles, demonstrating their riding skills while awaiting the arrival of the gubernatorial aspirant at the state secretariat of the All Nigeria People's Party, to formally announce his governorship ambition.

According to the witnesses, the trailer driver who was on high speed lost control of his truck and knocked down the late Kunjikunji, who was behind one of the numerous motor-cycles on the campaign train.

Our correspondent gathered that the victim was immediately taken to the Specialist Hospital, Damaturu, but died on the way.

The incident which happened in the early hours of Friday, brought the rally to a halt.
