

These accepted out of

This disclosure was made der to justify the huge invest

Hit and run driver kills retired civil servant

By Abubakar Yakubu

A retired civil servant in the Federal Ministry of Health, Tunde Elesamin was on Saturday night knocked down by a hit and run driver, along the Abuja-Keffi road at Sharp Corner bus stop in Mararaba.

According to an eye witness, Ahmed Danga, the deceased was crossing the road at around 9.30pm when a fast moving vehicle hit him and immediately sped off.

He said the accident victim died on the spot and his body was later removed by some policemen who arrived the scene at 10pm.

When City News visited the spot of the incident, the bumper of the car and the deceased, shirt were still lying there.

A close friend of the deceased, Johnson Ameachi described the late Elesamin as a simple and friendly person.

He said it has being difficult for him to reach out to the family members of the deceased, who hails from Ilesha in Osun State.

