

Suspected ritualist beheads 10-year old girl in Funtua

A suspected ritualist has beheaded a 10-year old girl in Funtua local government area of Katsina state barely two months after a similar incident occurred at Funtua.

The victim, Aisha Mohammed, was killed at the weekend by the suspected ritualist while on an errand for her grandparents.

The father of the girl, Mallam Muhammad Saminu, told newsmen that the deceased was sent to fetch firewood by her grandparents and did not return several hours later and that a search by the family yielded no positive result until her remains were discovered by the police in a swamp behind the Funtua hill.

Daily Trust gathered that parts of the bodies of the victim recovered included her head, ankle, some parts of her leg and remnants of her intestine.

However, when contacted, the police public relations officer (PPRO), Asp Adamu Yusif, said his command was yet to receive a signal about the case.
