

Robbers killed a Kaduna jewellery dealer and stole his stock in a daylight raid on Saturday.

Another woman who was shot at the scene was said to have died soon after. Her identity could not be ascertain as at the time of

Robbers kill two in Kaduna daylight raid

From AbdulRaheem Aodu, Kaduna

going to press. The third person is said to be recovering in the hospital.

Businessmen along the ever busy Hamdala shopping area in Kaduna metropolis were thrown into fear and confusion when armed robbers killed Alhaji Dan Alhaji and carted away goods worth millions of naira from his shop.

The robbers who were three in number according to an eyewitness, came to the area in a Toyota Carina car at about 10am. Two of them went straight into the man's jewellery shop while the other waited in the car parked on the kerb of Muhammadu Buhari Way.

After holding Dan Alhaji hostage for sometime while the robbery was ostensibly taking place, the robbers came out of the shop carrying a huge bag said to contain expensive mobile phones, wristwatches, jewellery and other items worth millions of naira.

However, when the victim attempted to raise alarm, the robbers shot him

Cont. on Pg. 4

Robbers

Cont. from pg. 1

twice and zoomed off to an unknown destination, leaving him in a pool of blood. Dan Alhaji was immediately rushed to the nearby Barau Dikko hospital where he later died. He has since been buried according to Muslim rites at a Kaduna Muslim cemetery.

The police have since commenced investigations into the attack according to the police public relations officer, Sa'ad Yahaya.