...hit and run kills Okada man

A trailer crushed two people to death in a motor park on the Lagos-Ibadan expressway on Thursday.

The truck veered off the road and smashed into the Ondo/Ore motor park located at Olowora-Isheri Junction.

The trailer, with registration number had attempted to avoid a broken down commercial bus parked in the road. It lost control and crashed into the park. Motorists and people at the park ran helter-skelter to avoid the truck and in the process, three persons sustained injuries, witnesses said.

It was learnt that the driver immediately escaped from the scene for fear of attack by angry motorists at the park. The identities of the victims was not immediately known at the time of filing in this report.

Officials of the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC) who reported at the scene conveyed the remains of the victims to the Ikeja General hospital.

Meanwhile, a hit and run driver, Thursday killed an Okada rider on the Ikorodu expressway, leaving the shattered corpse on the road.

The incident, according to witness accounts, occurred at about 7am during traffic jam; yet the driver of the vehicle said to be of a Honda model, swerved and escaped. The corpse was later picked by the police.
