

Honda car crashes into ditch along Kubwa road

Tragedy struck Friday when the driver of a Honda Accord car lost control, went off the road and crashed deep under the bridge along Kubwa expressway in Abuja.

The Kubwa Bridge is popularly called, 'second Gate Bridge.'

The time and the cause of the accident could not be ascertained.

The smashed car has been attracting lots of motorists and passengers who alight out of their vehicles to have a glimpse of the ruined vehicle.

It cannot be ascertained whether life was lost or the occupants of the vehicle were still alive.

Some of the motorists who stopped to have a quick look at what happened expressed worry that the Kubwa express road has become a death trap for motorists.

Some were heard saying the Road Safety should do some thing about it, now that the Xmas and Sallah festivities are around the corner.

Some were also heard murmuring that the drivers should be held responsible for road accident in the country.
