

10 die in Kano auto accident

An auto crash in Kano on Friday killed 10 people when a trailer and two other vehicles collided in Gano village, a few kilometres from Kano city.

A witness, Malam Sani Abdullahi Gano told Daily Trust that a trailer ran into an incoming commuter bus carrying over 14 people and broke it into two parts.

All the ten people who died were in the commuter bus, while a third vehicle, a Toyota corolla car which was also hit by the trailer lost control and somersaulted several times. The occupants however survived without serious injuries.

Malam Sani said the accident sent the entire town into

From Hassan A Karofi, Kano

a shock. Many of the dead were women and children believed to be travelling from Wudil to Kano city.

Most of the injured were taken to nearby hospitals and clinics while the dead were carried to the Murtala Muhammed hospital in Kano.

When Daily Trust visited the scene of the accident on Saturday, men of the road marshals and policemen were seen trying to remove the wretch.

Road accident along the Kano- Maiduguri road is frequent, this led to the award of contract for the dualisation of the road by the Federal Government in 2007.