THUGS KILL UNDERGRADUATE IN GOMBE

Written by Aliyu M. Hamagam, Gombe

Thursday, 24 April 2008

The Gombe State Police Command has confirmed the murder of one Ibrahim Muhammad, a student of the University of Maiduguri, at the notorious Gandu quarters in the state capital.

The Deputy Police Commissioner, Barrister Nicholas Nkemedem said the police had not made any arrest but were on the hunt for the perpetrators.

A witness at the scene of the incident, who sought anonymity said the deceased was stabbed in his stomach by a group of thugs, which led to his death.

He added that if paraded, he would be able to identify one or two among the killers.

Gandu ward is the same place where one motorcyclist and a female teacher were killed recently.

Daily Trust also learned that due to the gravity of criminal activities in the area, the police had maintained a day and night patrol of the area, but with the recent absence of the police, criminal activities re-emerged.

Muslim group demands free education for females From Mustafa Abubakar , Ilorin The Federal Government has been urged to declare free education for females at all levels of education in the country.

The secretary of the Kwara State branch of the Izalatul- Bidi'at Wa 'Iqamatul Sunnah , Malam Garba Jajere made the call at the graduation ceremony of female students of Sheikh Abu baker Gumi School Ilorin recently.

Malam Jajere said this would help reduce the level of illiteracy among Nigerian women. He urged Muslim parents to ensure that their wards acquire both Islamic and Western education to enable them contribute positively to national development.

The secretary said this would also help in the war against child trafficking, especially in girls.
