Hoodlums kill man at Mabushi

Written by Hadiza A. Hamidu

THURSDAY, 26 FEBRUARY 2009

A gang of miscreants on Sunday mugged a man who stepped out of a restaurant at Mabushi and stabbed him to death after robbing him of N500.

According to an eye witness, the man, simply called Aminu had just eaten from a local restaurant at 8 pm and was on his way to visit friend when the hoodlums sprang out of a dark spot, demanding for money as well as other valuables.

He said the deceased only had N500 on him and was reluctant to part with it, which made the hoodlums search him forcefully.

“They forcefully searched him and found N500 naira in his pocket and in the process a fight ensued between them that led to a member of the gang bringing out a knife to stab Aminu in several places on his body,” he disclosed.

He said after the attack, Aminu ran to his friend's house bleeding to narrate the incident, after which he was rushed to the hospital and died before getting there.

Confirming the report, FCT police Spokesperson Moshood Jimoh said a suspect was arrested in connection with the incident, adding that he will be charged to court after the police concludes their investigation.
