Dutse — The Jigawa State government is to pay compensation to victims of the Marke/Miga farmers/pastoralists clash that claimed six lives and destroyed property worth N5.4million, the Commissioner for Information, Alhaji Muhammad Aminu has disclosed.

Addressing newsmen Wednesday, the commissioner said a committee had been set up by the government to investigate the cause of the clash.

Alhaji Aminu added that government would bring to book any person or group of persons found guilty no matter how highly placed he/she is, saying government was determined to forestall future occurrence.

The commissioner maintained that the council had approved N24million for four indigenes who obtained 1st class degrees in the sciences to study for their masters degree abroad.

Aminu added that the council approved the release of N108 million for the construction of drainages in Karkama village of Yankwashi Local Government Area and N22million for the renovation of Government Girls Secondary School, Ringim.
