At least five persons, including a police inspector, lost their lives in five accidents which occurred on Saturday in Lagos, the state Police Command said yesterday.

The command's spokesman Mr Frank Mba said in Lagos that the Sallah holiday period was crime-free in the state except for the accidents. According to Mba, Insp. David Nze, attached to Mopol 2, Lagos, was crushed by a commercial bus with registration no. XL 824 JJJ under the bridge at Iyana-Ipaja, a Lagos suburb, Mba said.

He also said the drivers of the vehicles involved in the accidents had been arrested for interrogation. Mba said a motorist who allegedly drove his jeep recklessly, also killed an unidentified motorcyclist along the Ijegun-Ikotun road.

"Two unidentified pedestrians were also killed on Iba-Igando road and under the bridge at Mile Two on the fateful day," he said. Mba said the corpses had been deposited at the mortuary for autopsy. (NAN)
