At least one herdsman was killed while two others are missing in an attack by cattle rustlers in Ganawuri village in Riyom Local Government Area of Plateau State Sunday.

Special Task Force (STF) spokesperson Lieutenant Colonel Kingsley Umoh said the attack said the which took place at about 12:30pm was launched by bandits numbering about 200, some armed with automatic weapons while others armed with machetes, spears, bows and arrows invaded Ganawuri and its environs in Riyom.

The bandits according to Task Force statement, are suspected to be cattle rustlers from neighbouring communities in Chiwari, Kaura Local Government Area of Kaduna State. It added that several houses were burnt, property looted and over 100 cows were stolen. Umoh added that the attention of the STF troops was drawn to the incident and they responded promptly.

"The bandits were pursued, they engaged the STF in a fire fight at the end of which about 140 cows were recovered. One of the bandits sustained gunshot wounds while six others were arrested including a woman. Those arrested have been handed over to the state CID for further investigations", Umoh added.

The STF spokesman who pointed out that the incident was "purely criminal" further added that the STF was on top of the situation, stressing, "Residents are again advised to report suspicious persons or activities to the STF through any of the widely circulated distress lines".
