Police arrest man for killing mother

Thursday, 19 August 2010 02:12 Ibrahim Muhammad, Yola

Police in Adamawa State have arrested a man, Muhammad Gana, for allegedly killing his mother, Hajiya Hajara, over a landed property at Wauru-Jabbe in Yola South Local Government Area of the state.

Hajiya Hajara, who until her death was a food seller at the Wauru-Jabbe market, was said to have been cut to death by her 32-year-old son, Muhammad, popularly known as Sule.

Our correspondent reports that Mohammed's sister arrived home last Friday to meet her mother lying on the ground with cuts all over her body. She then raised an alarm and the woman was rushed to the Yola Specialist Hospital, where she was confirmed dead.

The sister to the alleged murderer told Daily Trust that their late mother, Hajiya Hajara, had earlier warned her not to give her brother the documents of her landed property.

The Police Public Relations Officer, Altine Daniel, said after investigation, the suspect would be charged to court for culpable homicide.
