Gov Idris' driver dies in auto crash

Tuesday, 14 September 2010 07:24

Isiaka Wakili, Lokoja

One of the drivers of Kogi State Governor Ibrahim Idris died on Sunday in an auto crash along the Abuja-Lokoja road.

The deceased, Mr Enema John, was returning to the state from Abuja, when the accident occurred.

The incident, according to sources at the Government House, occurred about 11.00pm when his Toyota car collided with a trailer in Gwagwalada.

The Director General, Press Affairs to the governor, Mr Richard Elesho, described the death as a great tragedy.

The deceased is survived by his mother, wife and four children.
