Family sources said Mrs.

Rifkatu Umaru had travelled to Bokkos Local Government Area of the state for a wedding on Saturday along with some friends and returned to Jos at about 8:30 pm the same day. Official sources said Mrs. Umaru who runs a popular restaurant known as "Reeves Heritage Kitchen" located at the National Commission for Museum and Monument Jos, fell into the deep well while walking home.

Plateau State Police Commissioner AbdulRahman Akanno told our correspondent that the woman fell into the well while walking home and dismissed insinuations that she was murdered. He said the commander of the STF is a good man so his wife would not be a target as being speculated. The police commissioner said her body has been removed from the well and deposited at a mortuary in Jos.
