

4-year-old falls from 5-storey building, dies

From Johnkennedy Uzoma, Owerri

A four and a half-year-old boy identified as Ifeanyi fell off a five-storey building situated at number 5 Rotibi Street, Owerri Monday, and died instantly. The building houses all major national dailies in Owerri.

The father of the boy who declined mentioning his name, told Daily Trust that the incident occurred around 5pm when they were away from home.

The boy, according to his father, was in the house with his elder brothers when the parents left for the market.

He explained that the older children did not know when the child left them for the other side of the house. According to him, the deceased removed the louvers from the window and passed through the window protector, fell off and died instantly. They had lived in the house for six months. He described the incident as unfortunate, adding that he was away when people called him.
