Mararaba police kill suspected robber

Friday, 31 December 2010 00:00

y Itodo Daniel Sule

A team of policemen from Abacha road Divisional Police Station, Mararaba, Nasarawa State, in the wee hours of Wednesday killed an unidentified armed robbery suspect during an exchange of gun fire in the area.

A police officer at the division said they received a distressed call at the early hours of Wednesday morning that a gang of robbers were operating at a residence close to City College of Education, Abacha Road.

He said a team of policemen from the division were promptly despatched to the scene and they engaged the robbery gang in a gun duel, which led to the death of one the robbers, while the rest fled.

The officer said a locally made double barrel gun was recovered from the deceased suspect.

An eye witness said that the corpse of the robbery suspect was paraded at the Sani Abacha Police Station with a double barrel gun placed on his body for some hours after the incident.

When contacted, the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) of the station, Usman Mohammed, declined comment on the issue and directed the reporter to the Nasarawa State Police Command for further comment.
