Share Three persons were killed yesterday at the Labour Party campaign rally in Ikenne, Odogbolu LG of Ogun State. A clash between LP supporters and Okada riders shattered the peace of the town, forcing the PDP gubernatorial candidate in the state, retired Gen. Adetunji Olurin to postpone his campaign earlier scheduled for yesterday.

Trouble was said to have started when one of the vehicles in the convoy of the party reportedly hit the Okada riders, killing them instantly. Also, the rally fixed for Ode-Remo as well as the homage scheduled to be paid to the matriarch of the Awolowo dynasty, Mrs. H.I.D Awolowo by Olurin were put on hold.

However, at the rally held at Ishara, Olurin condoled with the families of the Okada riders and also called for a minute silence in their honour.
