Saturday, 23 April 2011 02:16 Nasir imam

Shamsuddeen, son of the Minister of the Federal Capital Territory (FCT), was yesterday involved in a car crash along Mabushi-Life Camp Expressway in Abuja. Shamsuddeen, in his early 30s, was in his car with a friend driving and was trying to avoid another car when a pedestrian suddenly ran onto the expressway. As a result, Shamsuddeen applied brakes and the car somersaulted.

Shamsuddeen, with his friend, were rushed to nearby Zankli Hospital, but the friend, a son to a Peoples Democratic Party (PDP) stalwart in Bauchi State, one Gamawa, died. As at the time of filing this report, the minister's son was still in the hospital receiving treatment. The person who was trying to cross and was hit, died on the spot.
