Explosion rocks Kaduna again...bomber dead, 2 others nabbed

Saturday, 23 April 2011 02:27

Ibraheem Musa, Kaduna

Kaduna town experienced the fourth bombing incident in one month when a loud explosion occurred at the area between Unwan Dosa and Rafin Guza around 6.45pm yesterday. According to reports, the explosion appeared to have claimed the life of the person who was wielding the bomb. Security sources hinted Weekly Trust that two males, whose names were not given, were arrested in relation to the incident.

Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) Aminu Lawan confirmed the incident but couldn't give details as the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in charge of the area had not briefed him at the time of filing this report.

Earlier in the month, two explosions had occurred at Mahuta, a village behind National Eye Centre , killing one person on April 7. A second one exploded on April 16 around 8pm at Kabala West, killing 2 people. Later at night, another blast occurred close to Kaduna North LG around 11pm, but no life was lost.
