Residents of Lemu, Zaria, woke up Wednesday morning to hear of the death of three persons, who had gone to bed hale and hearty. It was gathered that five persons went to bed in the sewing shop where they worked and that three were found dead while the other two were unconscious. The deceased are Hayatuddin Hassan, 15, Habibu Ja'afaru, 17 and Abubakar Abdulmuminu, 17, while Adamu Abbas, 16 and Sadiq Ja'afaru, 11 were found unconscious.

Speaking with the Daily Trust, father of one of the deceased, Malam Hassan Mo-hammed said the five boys slept in the shop after the day's job. He added that they became alarmed when at dawn the father of one of the boys called several times without any response.

"When the boy did not answer the calls, his father sent some people to check. After several knocks on the door, they forced it opened and found three persons dead and two unconscious. The two who were unconscious were immediately rushed to St Luke Hospital, Wusasa, Zaria."

A source at the hospital confirmed the admission of the boys in the hospital and that they were responding to treatment.

Police Public Relations Officer of the Kaduna State command, DSP Aminu Lawal confirmed the incident, saying investigation into the matter has commenced.
