

Do more with Daily
Trust! Follow us on...

Trailer crushes 25-year-old man in Owerri

Written by Johnkennedy Uzoma, Owerri Tuesday, 17 January 2012 05:10

Tweet 0

0

Share

SocButtons plugin

4

A 25-year-old man simply identified as Chima suspected be a student of Imo Si was on Sunday crushed to death by a trailer in Owerri.

Share

AdChoices

AFP Police Clearance

AFP Federal Police
Certificate for your
Australia Visa or work
check

policeclearancecertificate.com.au

Worldwide Investigations

Insurance Investigation
Experts Experience and Trust

digroup-us.com

Israel Company Info

Full Reports on any Company in Israel

www.kycisrael.com

The incident occurred at the Imo State University junction around 9am along Owerri-Okigwe

The deceased, said to be into manicure and pedicure business at Njamaze Street Owerri, was on his bicycle to attend to one of his customers at IMSU area when the trailer, coming from the direction knocked and crushed him.

Eye witness told Daily Trust that the deceased had his skull scattered adding that the driver, disappeared from the scene immediately the incident occurred.

The incident left some early morning worshipers in tears, as they suspected that the deceased was riding the bike to cushion the effect of transport fare, occasioned by the recent subsidy

Add comment

Name (required)

E-mail (required, but will not display)

Website

Facebook fans