

Herbalist, others arrested over killing of hunch back

Written by Adewale Giwa, Akure
Monday, 23 January 2012 05:00 -

The Ondo State Police Command says it has arrested five suspects in connection with the killing of a 25- year-boy in Odigbo area of the state last week.

The suspects, according to the state's Commissioner of Police, Sani Magaji, lured the victim with the aid of a lady believed to be his fiancé.

The suspects are Adeoye Dowo, Samuel Olatunji, Dayo Araromi and Lekan Holo and a herbalist, Oluwatosin Elebile.

The victim was said to have been lured into a bush in Ago Alaye Village, Odigbo Local Government Area by the suspects where his hunch back was said to have been removed for money rituals.