

DPO killed in Rivers auto accident

Written by Bashiru Abdullahi Port Harcourt
Tuesday, 13 March 2012 05:00

---

A Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in-charge of Ozuoba Police Station in Port Harcourt, Mr. Abdul Hussain, was killed in an auto crash on Sunday, Daily Trust learnt yesterday.

Hussain, an Igala from Kogi State, was said to have died after his vehicle, which was being driven by another police officer, lost control and veered off the road.

The late DPO was said to have attended a meeting at the Police Officers' Mess located along Forces Avenue in the old Government Reservation Area (GRA) near Government House, Port Harcourt on Sunday evening.

The police spokesman in the state, Mr. Ben Ugwuegbulam, who confirmed the incident yesterday, said the deceased was not the person driving the vehicle.