Gunmen attack supermarket in Kano, kill woman

From Lawan Danjuma Adamu,
Kano

GUNMEN on Saturday night opened fire on a supermarket in Kano, killing a woman and injuring the shop owner. The attack took place at about 8:30pm in Dakata area of the state.

The attackers, who were two in number, rode on a motorcycle, stormed the provision store, and started shooting, said a witness.

Daily Trust learnt that a woman, who was shopping at the time, died after she was shot while the shop owner, Mr. Paulinus Okolo was also shot in the shoulder.

Residents of the area also said that a passerby was hit in the attack, adding that all the victims were taken to the Aminu Kano Teaching Hospital.

Our correspondent reports that shortly after the incident, police condoned off the area.

Confirming the attack, spokesman of the Kano Police Command, ASP Musa Magaji Majiya, who said the attack may have been a robbery operation, said the suspected robbers fled the area before the arrival of the police. He added that the deceased and the injured were rushed to hospital immediately.
