

Soldier killed in Kano

From Nazifi Dawud Khalid, Kano

A soldier attached to the Joint Security Task Force (JTF) was allegedly killed by unknown gunmen at the Sharada area of Kano metropolis on Saturday.

Confirming the attack, JTF spokesman Lieutenant Ikediche Iweah said the soldier, who was unarmed and in mufti, was trailed and killed by some unidentified gunmen while he was returning from a visit to the house of one of his family members in the area.

He said efforts are being made by the taskforce to track down the killers.
