A commercial motorcyclist also known as Okada rider was yesterday crushed by a tipper at the traffic junction opposite General Hassan Usman Katsina House along Ali Akilu road near Kawo in Kaduna metropolis.

A witness said the Okada rider was hit by the tipper when they were stopped by the traffic warden at the junction.

“The Okada rider was trying to control the motorcycle when he was hit by the tipper right in front of the traffic warden. In the process, he hit a stationary Toyota Siena and fell under the rear tyres of the tipper and was crushed on the head and killed him instantly,” the witness narrated.

Traces of blood covered by sand were seen at the spot of the accident when Sunday Trust visited the scene of the accident.

The corpse was taken away by the men of the Federal Road Safety Commission and deposited at the Barau Dikko Specialist hospital in Kaduna.

An official of the FRSC who confirmed the incident said the incident occurred around 11:00am.
