Gunmen kill man in Kano

From Nazifi Dawud Khalid

TWO unidentified gunmen riding a motorcycle yesterday shot and killed a 20-year-old man around 2pm at 'Yan Lemu area in the outskirts of Kano. Sources told our reporter that the victim was caught by a bullet from the assailants' rifle as he tried to flee after hearing sporadic gunshots. "There was serious confusion as everybody scurried into their homes for safety. The gunmen immediately left the scene after eliminating the victim", the source narrated. The spokesman of the Kano police command, ASP Magaji Musa Majiya, who confirmed the incident said the assailants had already fled by the time the police arrived the scene.
