

FROM left: Manager, Public Relations, Transcorp Hilton Abuja, Mr. Shola Adeyemo; New General Manager, Transcorp Hilton Hotel Abuja, Mr. Etienne Gailliez; and outgoing General Manager, Transcorp Hilton Abuja, Mr. Andre Herrenschmidt, during the farewell cocktail for outgoing GM of Transcorp Hilton in Abuja recently.

Quick Read

Islam abhors terrorism, brigandage — Cleric

From Doyin Adebunsi, Ado-Ekiti

AN Islamic scholar, Alhaji Ishaq Kunle Sanni, at the weekend, warned those causing disharmony through killing to desist, saying Islam abhors all acts of terrorism and brigandage. Speaking on the topic, "Security Challenges in Nigeria — Islamic Perspectives", Alhaji Sanni, at the 2nd annual Ramadan lecture organized by the NTA, Ado-Ekiti, he cited a portion of the Qur'an where Allah warned Muslims to always fear conflict and its attendant consequences, stressing that the perpetrators of violence are not always immune against it.

He called on the government to live up to its responsibilities and address the problems of unemployment which he said is the root-cause of the security challenges.

Gunmen kill MDGs official in Kaduna

From Sunday Isuwa, Kaduna

GUNMEN at the weekend killed a desks officer with the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), Iliya Chori, in Kaduna, the state's Commissioner of Police, Abubaka Jinjiri Mohammed, has said.

It was gathered that Chori was trailed by the gunmen to his house located at No. 38 Ohinoyi Road, Ungwan-Rimi GRA in Kaduna.

"Chori work as the Kaduna State Assistant Focal officer of the MDGs and was on secondment from the state's Ministry for Health. Nothing was taken from him by the gunmen," a close associate of the deceased, Joshua Sani said.

The commissioner of police said investigation into the matter has commenced.

Kano to get solar power plant

From Nazifi Dawud Khalid, Kano

THE Senior Special Assist-

Wrangling at Kaduna varsity over VC, new campus