

Nigeria: Gunmen Kill Ex-Judiciary Workers' President

BY LAWAN DANJUMA ADAMU, 16 MARCH 2013

Kano — Unknown gunmen shot and killed a former national president of the Judiciary Staff Union of Nigeria, Usamatu Badawi in Hoto area of Kano state.

Confirming the incident to Daily Trust from the cemetery where late Badawi is to be buried this morning, Public Relations Officer of JUSUN, Sule Aliyu said the killing is suspected to have occurred between 11pm and 12am. Residents say they heard gunshots but were unaware of the killing until they found his corpse lying by the roadside close to his house around 7am on Saturday morning. Both of his eyes were shot out and his Honda saloon car with Kano judiciary plates was presumed stolen by his killers.

Kano state Police PRO, ASP Musa Magaji Majiya told Daily Trust that the police had received report of an armed robbery incident in which a judiciary official was killed and his car stolen.
