

Nigeria: Worshipper Killed in Yobe Mosque

BY HAMISU KABIR MATAZU, 29 MARCH 2013

Damaturu — Unknown gunmen yesterday attacked a mosque in Potiskum in Yobe State, killed one person and injured two others.

It was gathered that the gunmen attacked worshipers in the open mosque at Filin Allah area by opening fire on them while observing the evening prayer and after the attack they fled.

A witness said one dead body and two other persons who sustained bullet wounds were taken to Potiskum General Hospital.

Yobe State Police Commissioner Sanusi A. Rufa'i confirmed the incident, saying however that he was yet to get details on the attack from the DPO in the area.
