

Nigeria: Three Killed As Gunmen Attack STF in Jos, Wase

BY LAMI SADIQ AND HASSAN IBRAHIM, 17 APRIL 2013

Three persons have been killed when gunmen yesterday attacked personnel of the Special Task Force (STF) in two separate operations in Jos North and Wase local government areas in Plateau State.

Daily Trust gathered that the incident in Jos North occurred when some officers of the task force who were on foot patrol on a bridge around Gada Biyu were engaged in a shootout with gunmen that led to the death of one.

STF's Media and Information Officer Captain Salisu Mustapha confirmed the incident, saying "our troops were also attacked in Wase Tofa village by assailants who had earlier attacked the village. Our troops exchanged gunshots with the attackers which led to the death of two of them while two others have been arrested."

Mustapha, who also confirmed that residents of Wase Tofa had abandoned the village and were presently taking refuge in Wase town and Pilgani in Langtang North, said "items recovered from the Wase attack are two locally made guns while a pistol was recovered from the Jos attack."
