

Nigeria: Two WAEC Officials, Cop Killed in Borno

BY YAHAYA IBRAHIM, 22 APRIL 2013

Maiduguri — Two officials of the West Africa Examination Council (WAEC) and a policeman have been shot dead while transporting examinations papers to Maiduguri, Daily Trust gathered yesterday.

It was learnt that the officials, who were coming from Yola, were ambushed on Friday afternoon by some gunmen at Mule town about 25 kilometres to Maiduguri, the state capital.

The Hilux van, which they used in transporting exams papers, was said to have been taken away by the assailants who left their victims in the pool of blood.

The bodies of the victims, it was gathered, were deposited at a hospital morgue in Maiduguri by soldiers.

Spokesman of the state police command DSP Gideon Jibrin could not be reached on his mobile phone but an official of the examination body who spoke to our correspondent on condition of anonymity confirmed the killing of the two officials including a policeman escorting examination papers.
