Two persons were yesterday killed when a yet to be identified group of gunmen attacked some herdsmen on their way through Wadugu community at the outskirts of Lafia, the Nasarawa State capital. Secretary of Miyetti Allah for the state Hussain Abubakar, who claimed the attackers were members of Ombats, said the victims were herding their cattle to Bauchi for grazing, when they were attacked at the community.

“Our Fulani men were on the cattle route and did not veer into anybody’s farm but to their amazement they were attacked and the over one thousand cattle they were moving with were dispersed and are still in the bush in different locations”, he said.

State police spokesmen, DSP Michael Ada, confirmed the attack and the killing, but said the identity of the attackers was still uncertain at press time.
