A 17-year-old JSS II student of Usman Nagoggo Arabic and Islamic Studies, Ibrahim Bello, has been confirmed killed by suspected Katsina notorious thugs better known as Kauraye.

The student was killed during a clash by two rival thugs at Sabuawar-Ugunwa in Katsina metropolis.

The victim, popularly known as Imam was on his way to an Islamiyyah school at about 8:45pm on Monday when some thugs, who stormed the area for revenge on members of a rival group, stabbed him with a sharp object in neck.

Imam was said to have collapsed and later rushed to Katsina General Hospital for treatment where he died minutes after. Police authorities confirmed the incident.

PPRO ASP Aminu Sadiq Abubakar said seven suspected thugs including the prime suspect, Ahmad Garba alias Condemn, were apprehended in connection with the murder.

He said weapons including knives, sticks and cutlasses were recovered from the suspects upon searching their respective houses.
