

THE WORLD NEWS II

Couple, 4 children perish in P/Harcourt

Category: News | Published on Sunday, 23 June 2013 00:25 | Written by Victor Edozie, Port Harcourt | Hits: 63

A tragic fire incident in the early hours of yesterday claimed the lives of a couple and four of their children in Port Harcourt.

The victims: a taxi driver, his petty trader wife and their children who hailed from Anambra State were residents at No. 17 New Estate Road, Railway Quarters.

According to witnesses, they were trapped in the inferno that started at about 1:00am.

Witnesses said the deceased's children were three boys and a girl, aged between 22 and 7.

The only survivors of the family are two girls who were taking school certificate examination outside Port Harcourt when the incident occurred.

The landlord of the house who pleaded for anonymity told our correspondent that he heard an explosion thrice and before he could help, the entire buildings were in flames.

He said property worth millions of naira were destroyed. He said the remains of the victims have been taken to the morgue.

When contacted, the state Police Public Relation Officer, DSP Angela Agabe said she heard about the incident but was yet to be briefed by the DPO in charge of the area.

0

Tweet

0

0

Share

0

Share

Share this on Google+

Tweet

0

Pin it

Couple, 4 children perish in P/Harcourt

Category: News Published on Sunday, 23 June 2013 00:25 Written by Victor Edozie, Port Harcourt Hits: 63

A tragic fire incident in the early hours of yesterday claimed the lives of a couple and four of their children in Port Harcourt.

The victims: a taxi driver, his petty trader wife and their children who hailed from Anambra State were residents at No. 17 New Estate Road, Railway Quarters.

According to witnesses, they were trapped in the inferno that started at about 1:00am.

Witnesses said the deceased's children were three boys and a girl, aged between 22 and 7.

The only survivors of the family are two girls who were taking school certificate examination outside Port Harcourt when the incident occurred.

The landlord of the house who pleaded for anonymity told our correspondent that he heard an explosion thrice and before he could help, the entire buildings were in flames.

He said property worth millions of naira were destroyed. He said the remains of the victims have been taken to the morgue.

When contacted, the state Police Public Relation Officer, DSP Angela Agabe said she heard about the incident but was yet to be briefed by the DPO in charge of the area.

0

Tweet

0

0

Share

(C) Media Trust Ltd. 1998 - 2013. All rights reserved.