

Gunmen kill 2 brothers in Sokoto

Rakiya A. Muhammad, Sokoto

A Filing station manager and his brother were on Thursday night in Sokoto shot by suspected gunmen leaving the two dead.

The victims' names were given as Stephen Oloche, manager of the Oando filing station along Birnin Kebbi Road, Sokoto and his brother Onyila Oloche.

They were said to have been leaving the station after close of work when they were attacked on their way at about 7:45 pm.

Weekly Trust learnt that Stephen was shot on the abdomen while Onyila was shot on the chest.

It was also gathered that the victims did not die on the spot and were immediately rushed to the Usmanu Danfodiyo Teaching Hospital, Sokoto However Onyila reportedly died Friday night while Stephen died yesterday morning.

Police Public Relations Officer, Sokoto state Command Almustapha Sani who confirmed the incident, said it is suspected to be a case of culpable homicide.
