Ibrahim,

Bulabulin Ngaura village and Damboa-Maiduguri road in Konduga as well as Damboa Local Government Areas of Borno State, Weekly Trust has gathered.

ABOUT 22 persons were killed by Boko Haram insurgents in two separate attacks between Thursday and yesterday at

The incidents are coming 48 hours after over 100 persons; mostly travelers were killed at Benisheikh by the sect.

In the Damboa-Maiduguri road incident, our correspondent gathered that the gunmen killed eight people on Thursday, when they intercepted a commercial bank's bullion van.

Three policemen escorting the bullion van were reported to be among those killed.

Sources told Weekly Trust that 14 people mostly villagers also lost their lives when insurgents attacked Bulabulin Ngaura village yesterday.

Our reporter gathered that the attack was in retaliation for the killing and arrest of some Boko Haram members by youth vigilantes in the area.

Security sources however confirmed the killing of the 22 people in the two areas.
