

Gombe: Police arrest 2 for killing businessman over girlfriend

From Adamu Saleh, Gombe

The Gombe State Police Command has arrested two suspects Mohammed Saidu and Abubakar Usman for allegedly conspiring and killing Abdulrahman Abubakar, a businessman in Bamba Barde, Wuro Sarki in Akko local government over a girl friend.

The police, in a press release yesterday signed by DSP Fwaje Atajiri, said Abdulrahman Abubakar and two others were all seeking the girl's hand in marriage.

But when Mohammed Saidu and Abubakar Usman discovered that the girl name withheld had agreed to marry Abdulrahman Abubakar, the two conspired to attack Abdulrahman with knife and killed him.

Atajiri said Mohammed Saidu and Abubakar Usman were arrested at lafiyawo in Akko local government of the State following a tip-off by the police.

He said the suspects would be charged to court to serve as deterrent to others who have like minds.

The statement warned the general public to be law abiding, especially young persons who took delight in taking the law into their hands on any slight provocation to desist from such unwholesome acts as anyone found to have such dastard action will face the full wrath of the law.

Head,
n, at a news

Kano IPP 35 megawatts to gulp