Men of the Bauchi State Police Command in conjunction with the Inspector General of Police Anti Robbery team attached to armed robbers hunter, Ali Kwara, have killed a suspected armed robber and recovered arms from him in Bauchi.

The state Police Public Relations Officer DSP Haruna Mohammed stated this yesterday while briefing newsmen in Bauchi.

He said police received intelligence report that a gang of armed robbers numbering about five attacked Mrs Adah Gboyi of Tudun Wada ring road in Jos Plateau State.

He added that they tied her up and made away with her Toyota Highlander Jeep with registration number Lagos LND 950 BJ and three handsets. He added that the vehicle was tracked to Bauchi.

"Police from the command and those attached to Ali Kwara laid ambush at Zaranda Area. On sighting the police, the hoodlums engaged us in a shootout during which one of the gunmen died. Others escaped with bullet wounds. Police recovered the stolen vehicle, one AK 47 rifle with No.KO.35-6371, one locally made pistol, 55 rounds of 7.62mm live ammunition, five cartridges and one magazine," he said.

Mohammed appealed to members of the public to report anyone seen with bullet wounds to the nearest police station.
