Five middle-aged women lost their lives in a ghastly motor accident that occurred Monday morning near Government Secondary School (GSS) Gwagwalada, along the Abuja-Lokoja road.

Our reporter learnt that two others, who sustained various degrees of injuries were taken to a private clinic by the rescue officials of the Federal Road Safety Commission (FRSC).

A witness said the accident happened around 6:35 am when a Sharon bus with registration RSH 369 AL dangerously overtook another and collided with an oncoming Peugeot car with registration number AA 282 KSU, killing the five women.

When contacted, Gwagwalada unit commander of the FRSC, Alhaji Ahmed Abubakar, confirmed the accident, which he attributed to over speeding.

He said ten people were involved in the accident, out of which five women lost their lives.

He said the corpses of the women were deposited at St. Mary's Catholic Hospital Gwagwalada, adding that two others that sustained injuries are receiving treatment at the same hospital.

In another accident, two persons were also injured in another accident which occurred Saturday evening at Yangoji village, along the Abuja-Lokoja road.

Yangoji unit commander of the FRSC, Austine Chukwudi Okeke, who confirmed the accident, said it happened around 7:12 pm and involved a J5 Peugeot bus with registration number KNM 159 XA.

He said the driver of the bus loss control while on speed, adding that those injured in the accident were taken to Kwali General Hospital for attention.
