A 24 year-old man, Danladi Abubakar, was yesterday arraigned before a Minna Magistrate's Court 7 for allegedly beheading an 11 month-old baby in Fajereji village in Gbako Local Government Area of Niger State.

Danladi was charged with culpable homicide which is punishable by death under section 221 of the penal code law. The father of the deceased, Mohammed Worogi, reported to the police in Lemu town that on November 4, 2013, one Danladi Abubakar picked his daughter, Hadiza, from their room and beheaded her. He was alleged to have removed her genital and took it with the head to an unknown destination.

When the charge was read to him by the magistrate, Mrs. Maryam Ladidi King, he pleaded guilty to the offence, saying he was contracted by another person to bring the head and genital for N20,000.

The police prosecutor, Inspector Daniel Ikwoche, told the court that investigation into the case had just commenced and after completion the case would be forwarded to the office of the Director of Public Prosecutor DPP in the Ministry of Justice for legal advice.

Magistrate Ladidi King said her court was only conducting preliminary trial on the case, she doesn't have the jurisdiction to handle it and thereby remanded the accused in prison custody pending legal advice from the DPP.
