Three mobile policemen on a patrol were killed in Nimbiya forest, Jemaá Local Government Area of Kaduna State by unidentified gunmen Sunday night, Daily Trust gathered yesterday.

A resident said the policemen were on a routine patrol when the gunmen suspected to be arm robbers open fire, killing three.

"Yes, three police men on patrol to Nimbiya forest were killed on Sunday night by gunmen suspected to be arm robbers. The forest has been a point from where gunmen have been coming to attack us," a villager said. The police could not comment. When contacted on telephone, state Police Commissioner, Mr Olufemi Adenaike, said he could not confirm the incident as he had not been briefed.
