A man in his 30s, identified as Musa Aliyu, was yesterday morning found dead along Aminu street, opposite former YMCA, Tudun Wada in Kaduna, with many stab wounds on him. Our correspondent gathered that the deceased was operator of a pay television shop.

Confirming the incident, Police spokesman, Deputy Superintendent Aminu Lawan told Sunday Trust the late man had passed the night in his shop with another man who is yet to be identified and is now at large. "The victim was not wearing his shirt, which could mean he was dragged out of the shop after a fight," Lawan said.

The body has been deposited at the Yusuf Dantsoho Hospital mortuary in Kaduna while police investigation is ongoing.
