A middle-aged-man died at the weekend after jumping out from a moving truck in Gwarinpa, along Abuja-Zuba expressway, Abuja.

City News learnt that the deceased had earlier asked the driver to give him a lift but that the driver declined saying he was not taking his route.

It was gathered from sources that the deceased, unknown to the driver, jumped into the truck, after he (driver) had taken off.

According to the source, the deceased, without informing the driver jumped out of the moving truck when the driver approached the junction he was supposed to drop.

City News further gathered that the man fell and died instantly after hitting the road with his head.

When contacted, the Kubwa Unit Commander, Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Ibrahim Bello, confirmed the death, saying that FRSC officers at Dutse moved the body to Kubwa General Hospital where he was confirmed dead.

He described the incident as unfortunate, adding that the corpse was deposited at the hospital's morgue.
