Police in Zamfara said yesterday that an anti-robbery police team attached to Ali Kwara killed at least two suspected armed robbers in Gusau.

Spokesman of the command DSP Lawal Abdullahi who confirmed the killing said two of the robbers were also arrested. He said they killed and arrested some of the hoodlums terrorizing members of the public, urging people to report any suspicious movement to security agents.

Speaking on the arrest, Ali Kwara said Toyota vehicle, guns, cartridges and mobile phones were retrieved from the robbers, adding that they used the items in robbing people in Abuja before fleeing to Zamfara. The corpses of the slain robbers were deposited at the Federal Medical Centre in Gusau.
