

POLICE HOLD 'DOCTORS' AFTER FAILED SURGERY

Category: News Published on Thursday, 19 December 2013 05:00 Written by Hir Joseph, Lafia Hits: 1420

Two men suspected to be quack doctors are in police custody in Lafia, Nasarawa State, after being arrested for allegedly carrying out a complicated surgery which resulted in the death of a man in Kadarko area of Keana.

The two were picked up last week according to the state owned radio, the NBS which reported that the patient had died of complications. The report said the proprietor of the illegal clinic called Tamen Clinic in Kadarko was on the run for over two week before being arrested by a team of policemen from the Criminal Investigation Department (CID) who given evidence to lead to his prosecution by pathologists from the ministry of health.

0 comments

Start the discussion...

Newest ▾

Community

Share

Be the first to comment.

 Subscribe

 Add Disqus to your site

back to top

Facebook

It's Forex Time

www.forextime.com

You Haven't Traded Until You've Traded With FXTM. Start Now!

Canada Immigration Visa ▾

Online MBA in \$1850 ▾

Your Zodiac Horoscope ▾

LATEST NEWS

Oduah kicks against Reps recommendations on bullet-proof cars

Institute, CSOs meet over threats to 2015 polls

SAN decries low judiciary budget

Ogun denies report on missing N11bn

185 killed in Osun road crashes

Page:1 / 3