

Monday, October 13, 2012

Suspected cultists kill student in Ilorin

Abdullateef Aliyu, Ilorin

A student of one of the Kwara State-owned institutions was killed yesterday in Ilorin by gunmen suspected to be cultists. The incident, which happened minutes after 4pm on Wahab Folawiyo road, caused confusion in the area as people ran to avoid being hit by stray bullets.

The deafening gunshots sparked speculations that a bank branch was the target of the gunmen.

Weekly Trust gathered that the gunmen had shot dead the student and fled the scene before the arrival of policemen. On arrival, the policemen took the corpse of the student away. Mobile policemen from the State Anti-Robbery Squad cordoned off the area.

Sources at the scene told Weekly Trust that many shop owners in the area including people queuing at the Automated Teller Machines (ATMs) directly facing the scene were arrested by the police.

Efforts to get the State Police Public Relations Office (PPRO) Mr. Fabode Olufemi were unsuccessful.

Fire guts NAFDAC office in Lagos

Kayode Ekundayo, Lagos

Fire gutted the office of the National Agency for Food and Drug Administration and Control (NAFDAC) in Lagos

■ C
prep