A 75-year old woman, Ibitokun Shewu, of Alomata compound, Kamaldeen Street, Okekere, Ilorin, died Monday after being hit with bullets from a gun belonging to a vigilante man which accidentally went off when the man was riding on a bike.

The woman was killed in Ile-Araoyo, Alore, Ilorin, on at about 8:00 pm returning home from a visit to her friend. Witnesses said the gun fell and the man asked his wife to pick it up for him but the wife mistakenly pressed the trigger. One of the sons of the deceased, Ibrahim Ashiriabo, said his mother died as a result of injuries from the gun shot, describing her death as painful. Police Public Relations Officer, ASP Ajayi Okasanmi, confirmed the incident.
